Practices for Healthy Aging

Healthy aging is something that we can work towards every day, and come at from many different angles, no matter where we are starting from. Below are some classes this month that will get you thinking about (and practicing) activities to start (or maintain) habits for a more vibrant and healthy lifestyle, no matter your age.

Thursday, October 5
Adjustment II: We’re Here; Now What?*
With the challenges of aging, how do we adapt, cope, attend to our well-being, foster resilience, and find meaning and purpose amidst the constancy of change? In other words, how do we continue to grow? How do we move from thought into action?
2:00 pm, Bristol View 1st Floor Bowditch Room

Friday, October 6
Aging Well: Tips and Strategies to Live Healthier as We Age*
Simply living longer isn’t enough. We want to stay healthy enough to continue doing the things we love. It’s never too late to make changes to help you live a longer and healthier life.
10:00 am, Lillian Pratt Parlor

Friday, October 6
Grounded in Nature*
How does nature speak to you? Would you like to feel more grounded in nature? Come hear the personal story of Colette DeMonte, PsyD., the founder of Sow Therapeutic and how this non-profit program bloomed from an idea during the COVID-19 pandemic. Share your own stories of how nature transformed your life and learn a few creative strategies to ground yourself in nature.
4:00 pm, Bristol View 1st Floor Bowditch Room

Monday, October 9, October 16, October 23, & October 30
The Emerging Science of Longevity*
In The Emerging Science of Longevity, Dr. Mark Hyman overturns the previous paradigm of aging and offers a new, empowering vision in which you have vastly more agency over your biology in this 4-week video series.
This program is a collaboration between Senior University and the Holistic Wellness Program.
1:30 pm, Bristol View 1st Floor Bowditch Room

Thursday, October 26
Unlock the Secrets of Intimacy and Maturity: A Workshop on Senior Sexuality!*
Discover the science behind arousal and desire, and gain practical tips and tools to navigate intimacy during your golden years. Join us for an engaging session where we delve into effective strategies for initiating conversations about desires and needs. As well as an opportunity to anonymously ask a sex therapist any burning questions you may have. Don't miss this empowering event designed to enhance your understanding and enrich your intimate relationships.
This program is a collaboration between Senior University and the Holistic Wellness Program.

Literary League Book Club— Fleishman is in Trouble

Join us as we discuss Fleishman is in Trouble by Taffy Brodesser-Akner

About the book: Dr. Toby Fleishman wakes up each morning surrounded by women. Women who are self-actualized and independent and know what they want--and, against all odds, what they want is Toby. Who knew what kind of life awaited him once he finally extracted himself from his nightmare of a marriage? Who knew that there were women out there who would actually look at him with softness and desire? But just as the winds of his optimism are beginning to pick up, they're quickly dampened, and then extinguished, when his ex-wife, Rachel, suddenly disappears. Toby thought he knew what to expect when he moved out: weekends and every other holiday with the kids, some residual bitterness, tense co-parenting negotiations. He never thought that one day Rachel would just drop their children off at his place and never come back.
