

Adelia serves as the campus spiritual support leader, where she facilitates weekly worship services and offers emotional and spiritual companionship to residents throughout the community. Her journey in this role began as a member of the Residential Accommodations team. Over time, Adelia and her colleagues observed residents grappling with challenges such as grief, loneliness, and questions of mortality. Recognizing a profound need for spiritual care, the administration at FTJ collaborated with her to establish this dedicated position in January 2025.

When reflecting on her vision for this role, Adelia shared, "I look forward to fostering a sense of openness and connection within the community. While I come from a Christian background, my ministry and passion are deeply rooted in spreading love, kindness and support across denominational and religious boundaries."

Adelia Nunn earned a Master of Arts in Ministry from the General Theological Seminary in 2022, specializing in Christian theology and pastoral care. Since completing her degree, she has served as Frank Tobey Jones' Garden Apartment Concierge and as Youth Minister at Auburn First United Methodist Church, where she develops and leads programming for children, teens and families.

Expanding her ministry, Adelia now provides spiritual support services at FTJ while continuing her chaplaincy training at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary. She is also pursuing ordination in the United Methodist Church. With experience across United Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopal traditions, Adelia is dedicated to cultivating an ecumenical and inclusive spiritual presence on campus.
