Katie Baker— Philanthropy Coordinator

Hello, my name is Katie Baker, and I am delighted to be the Philanthropy Coordinator.

I earned my BA in Philosophy from the University of Oregon and my MFA in Creative Writing from Pacific Lutheran University. Stories have always been central to my life—whether reading them, writing them, or helping others discover them. I'm an avid reader of all kinds of fiction, a writer of short fiction, an enthusiastic home baker, and a devoted coffee drinker. I currently belong to two book clubs and previously worked for the Tacoma Public Library, where I loved helping people connect with books, resources, and community.

I'm a proud mom to two wonderful daughters—Alice (9) and Tally (5)—who keep life lively, joyful, and full of curiosity. We make our home in Tacoma's charming Proctor District, where we share our days with our calico cat, Bunny, and our sweet senior dog, Louie, who has perfected the art of napping in every sunny spot.

Franke Tobey Jones already holds a special place in my heart. My grandparents, Ernie and Marilyn Karlstrom, lived here for many years, and I treasure the memories of visiting them in their duplex—walking the grounds, sharing meals, and experiencing firsthand the warmth and sense of community that make FTJ so special. It's an honor to now be part of the team that supports this place my family loved so much.

I'm truly excited to bring my love of storytelling, connection, and service to my role here at Franke Tobey Jones. I look forward to meeting you and contributing to the meaningful work we do together.
